Spring is here! Time to take inventory, purge and organize. The Personal Financial Empowerment Series (PFE) continues with classes to help you get your financial house in order.

Organizing Your Financial Records: A Place for Everything and Everything In Its Place
Topics include ways to identify financial documents that need to be retained; suggestions for how to organize them; and generally accepted guidelines on how long to retain which documents.
Facilitator: Usman Akbar, Business Development Manager—SunTrust Bank
Date: Thursday, April 4, 2013 Time: 10 a.m.—12 Noon Location: 910 Madison, Ste. 725

Tell Your Money What to Do: The Power of Personal Budgeting
A large part of making your money work for you is creating a plan for spending or a personal budget. The facilitator will review the importance of creating and sticking to a budget and offer strategies and resources to help participants to establish a spending plan.
Facilitator: Terri Gray, Manager—UT Federal Credit Union
Date: Tuesday, April 16, 2013 Time: 2:00 p.m.—4:00 p.m. Location: 910 Madison, Ste. 725

Retirement Planning for Gen X and Y
Time is on your side! Members of generations X and Y are in a position to maximize the retirement benefits available at the University and to create the type of retirement you desire for yourselves and your families. The facilitator will review the features of the UT 401k and 457 plans and highlight the benefits of regular contributions and investment over time for young adults.
Facilitator: Alese Pewitt, Retirement Plan Counselor—Great West Retirement Services
Date: Monday, April 29, 2013 Time: 10:00 a.m.—12 Noon Location: 910 Madison, Ste. 725

Would the Real You Please Stand Up? Protecting Yourself Against Identity Theft
In the digital age, protection against identity theft is more important than ever, and in some ways, more difficult than ever. The facilitator will offer practical strategies that can be used to prevent identity theft.
Facilitator: Lt. James Grigsby, Memphis Police Department
Date (Changed): Tuesday, May 14, 2013 Time: 10 a.m.—12 noon Location: 910 Madison Ste. 725

Faculty and staff enroll through the training portal.
Students should email Janice Maddox at maddox9@uthsc.edu to sign up.