From the President

When you come to Campus this month notice the centennial banners. We are officially celebrating the 100th anniversary of UTH-SC. An excellent coffee table picture book: The Legacy, The Future: A Centennial Portrait of The University of Tennessee Health Science Center has been printed and is available for purchase at the campus bookstore. Save Saturday, September 17, 2011, for the Centennial Gala which will be held under tents on our campus. Joyce Cobb will provide entertainment with a speaker to be announced. Watch for more details and information about tickets.

I look forward to seeing you at our March 17th luncheon. We have an excellent program planned where we will learn future campus recreation plans for students, faculty, staff, and retirees. We will have door prizes available again. Be certain to make reservations.

Be thinking about new officers and board members to take office in September. We need nominations. Some of you need to step up and become involved in the leadership planning. Feel free to contact me at dgreenhill@uthsc.edu for suggestions or questions about our organization.

Dianne Greenhill

Interested in Retirees Field Trips?

Plans are being made for day trips that would be of interest to UTHSC retirees, their friends and family members. Recent suggestions include a fall trip to the Ames Plantation during the annual arts and crafts festival. Another idea is to take a trip to the Civil Rights Museum in either April or May. Board Secretary, Barbara McAdams, does a wonderful job in coordinating and planning the trips. (See the last edition of PostScripts for a report about the retirees trip to Oxford, Mississippi). If you have suggestions about day trips that you and your friends would enjoy, please e mail Barbara at bmsvols@gmail.com or give her a call at 901-767-3947.

If you are interested in attending either of the two trips mentioned above, please contact Barbara and let her know, or tell her at the March 17 luncheon meeting.

New Officers to Be Elected in September

It's not too soon to begin considering the fall election of new officers for the Retirees Association. If you are interested in serving on the Board either as an officer or as an at large Board member, please let our current president, Dianne Greenhill know. Contact her by e mail, dgreenhill@uthsc.edu
