

ASKLEPIEION

(ə-'skle-pe-on)

Asklepieion is a word derived from the name of Aesculapius, the Greek god of medicine and healing. Aesculapius was honored and worshipped throughout the Greek world by persons seeking the healing powers of the physician. Temples were erected in honor of Aesculapius near healing springs or high mountains. Those who worshipped him were known as Aesculapae. Therefore, the temples in his honor were known as Aesculapions (Asklepieions).

In the ancient city of Memphis, on the Nile River, there was a temple where people went for worship and for care. In our own city of Memphis, on the Mississippi River, people come to our Asklepieion for healing and care.

The old Baptist Hospital complex began coming down early in '05. The main hospital tower, showing behind the rubble in the bottom photo, is scheduled for implosion late in '05 or early '06. The resulting space will house the new UTHSC Pharmacy Building and the Baptist/UTHSC Research Park.

After serving as Chancellor and then returning as Interim Chancellor, Bill Rice (right) said goodbye to UTHSC.

But not before having his picture made with notoriously camera shy, campus photographer, Thurman Hobson, who has taken many of the photos that grace the pages of this book.

The Asklepion staff selected "In Focus" as the theme for this year's yearbook. The shape of the campus continues to come into focus with much construction going on.

The University of Tennessee came more into focus also. John D. Petersen, Ph.D. was named President of the University last fall and he, in turn, selected native Memphian, William F. Owen, Jr., M.D. as Chancellor of the Health Science Center in February, 2005.

On a national level, President George W. Bush won reelection to a second term in November 2004 over Democrat John Kerry. Internationally, the war in Iraq continues, even though the Iraqis have elected a government. We continue to pray for the safety of our troops.

Locally, the new FedExForum opened. In February '05 students held the first Grizzlies Night. Not only did the home team win but they ended up making the play-offs for the second straight year.

Of course, the main focus on campus is getting an education. The University of Tennessee Health Science Center continues its mission of preparing the best health care professionals possible. That is to say that our students are – "In Focus" – as demonstrated by our back-flipper below.

Chancellor William F. Owen, Jr., M.D. (front row, far right) accepts accolades from his family and UTHSC family members at the announcement of his appointment in February. Joining the Chancellor on the front row are (from left), his son, William F., III, daughter, Lauren, and wife, Alice.

Silly string was the order of the day to climax the May '04 Commencement ceremonies.

STUDENT LIFE

Even some big kids are a little fearful of the giant slide.

Construction began on the long-awaited Student Lounge in the GEB.

A record number of UTHSC students and staff members participated in this year's Heartwalk. Above, Rodney Snow (second from right), SGAEC Medicine rep. walks with a coterie of orange-clad volunteers.

Even some campus police are a little fearful of the flu vaccine needle.

Pharmacy students once again practiced their technique and provided a much needed service at Boo Blin. Because of the flu vaccine shortage, this year's event was held after the traditional Halloween date.

In conjunction with LifeBlood, students gave of themselves in two very successful Blood Drives.

Incoming students find orientation just as bewildering as always. The climbing wall, on the other hand, is merely exhausting.

Java Coast opened an outlet in the GEB giving harried students a more diverse source of refreshment between classes. Over in the Plaza Bldgs. lobby, the Bookstore opened "Rocky Top," a visible source of UT hats, Tees, etc.

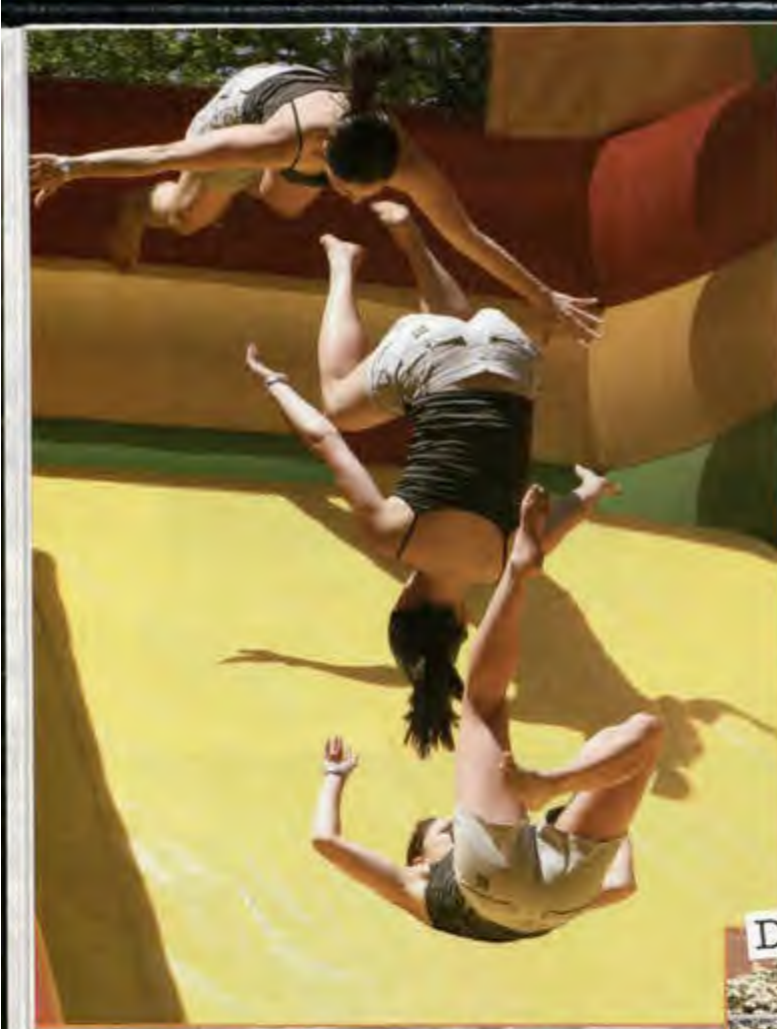

Some graduates just can't contain their excitement at commencement.

December 6, 2004

February 11, 2005 saw UTHSC students visit the new FedExForum for the first Grizzlies Night. The Grizzlies came from behind late and beat Portland 88-82 much to the delight of the crowd.

Redbirds Night

This year's Redbird's Night (April 29, 2005) was a washout. Though the game was cancelled, the food and camaraderie flowed like a fast-rising spring creek.

The Imhotep Society

In 1980, the Imhotep Society became an officially recognized organization on campus, for the purpose of honoring students, faculty, staff, and alumni who have significantly contributed to student life and student progress at UTHSC. It was recognized that many student leaders, in performing their functions and assignments, may have sacrificed high academic accomplishments and thus did not receive recognition through those organizations which traditionally honor students for high academic achievement. While the principle objective of the Imhotep Society is to reward and recognize student leadership and service on campus, a secondary goal is to inspire students to continue leadership and service roles as alumni of the University.

HONOR MEDICAL SOCIETY
Beta Chapter
THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

Alpha Omega Alpha is the only national honor society in the world. Its reason for being can be expressed in a phrase: to recognize and perpetuate excellence in the medical profession. As stated in the society's constitution, "Alpha Omega Alpha is organized for educational purposes exclusively and not for profit, and its aims shall be the promotion of scholarship and research in medical schools, the encouragement of a high standard of character and conduct among medical students and graduates, and the recognition of high attainment in medical science, practice, and related fields." ΑΩΑ elects outstanding medical students, graduates, alumni, faculty, and honorary members to its ranks. The society's key is designed after the Manubrium Sterni. The letters ΑΩΑ, engraved on the key, represent not only the name of the honor society, but the essential words in its motto:

Αξις ὠφελειν τοις ὑλοουντας
"To be worthy to serve the suffering"

<--Even when school was a little slow, Lucas always managed to keep life interesting.

I'd put our girls up against Cameron, Drew, and Lucy anytime!! -->

Michael and Jon enjoying the company of some ladies at a block party. It was always nice to see our colleagues in something other than scrubs!

Daniel going wild at the Phi Chi House!

Patrick and Tamika hanging out at our rooftop party... thanks to Todd and Andy we were always guaranteed a good time after exams.

Mridula and Julia can't help but smile as they proudly wear their new attire at the White Coat Ceremony.

Goodbye exams, hello partying!!! Our class really got to bond and let loose after exams at block parties. Most fortunately, Mardi Gras was the weekend after our 4th block!

Sisir looking hard, Samim just chilling, and Bighnesh with a smile that you couldn't wipe off his face...this picture really does capture diversity in our class!

The UTHSC squash team. After a long day of sitting in the GEB, there's nothing like some friendly competition on the squash court. The competition was not always friendly, though, when some cold ones at Zinnie's were riding on the line!

A Sharpe looking crew enjoying each others' company after exams--the smiles on their faces speak volumes.

The Omega Chapter of Phi Delta Chi has had an incredible year. We were named the PDC National Chapter of the Year, bringing home the much prized Thurston Cup for a record second consecutive year. While being named Chapter of the Year was definitely exciting, we are equally proud to be awarded first place in service, an activity in which the brothers of Phi Delta Chi excel. We participated in a multitude of service activities and events throughout the year and took trips to Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Gatlinburg in an effort to keep up the brotherhood that makes our fraternity strong. We look forward to the coming year and hope to make it even better than the last!
