

RELIGIOUS ACCOMMODATIONS

Flow Chart

STEP 1

Religious Accommodation Request is received by the Office of Equity and Diversity.

STEP 2

OED reviews request that may include a face-to-face meeting with the requesting individual.

STEP 2A

If the religious request is not reasonable, the individual will receive correspondence explaining the religious accommodation denial.

STEP 3

If the accommodation request does meet university policy specifications, OED will work with the manager/supervisor and the employee in an interactive process.

INTERACTIVE PROCESS

STEP 4A

If an accommodation is not possible, document and send appropriate correspondence to requesting individual and administrative authority.

STEP 4

Assurance Officer meets with the requesting individual, HR Employee Relations (i.e., employee) or college assistant/associate dean (i.e., student), and the appropriate administrative authority to determine what accommodations are needed and determine any undue hardships that may occur. (The religious accommodation process for students and employees are different.)

STEP 5

Implement accommodation as agreed upon during interactive process.

STEP 6

Document parameters of the agreed upon accommodation. Send correspondence to requesting individual and administrative authority.
Note: This correspondence must include the signature of administrative authority.
