

The University of Tennessee, Memphis
The Health Science Center

DISCLOSURE OF DELINQUENCY ON FEDERAL DEBT

Effective Date: October 7, 1997

UT Memphis, as a recipient of federal grants and contracts, is required to certify that neither the institution nor its principals is delinquent on any federal debt, in accordance with OMB Circular A21. See also Administrative Policy Statement #2.018 "Assurances of Compliance with Federal Regulations."

UT Memphis faculty and staff submitting grant applications or contract proposal to federal agencies or who have active federal grants and contracts are required to notify the Research Administration office if they are or become delinquent on any federal debt, including delinquent taxes, audit disallowances, guaranteed or direct student loans, FHA loans, business loans, and other miscellaneous administrative debts.